

Bike Shop

Lowell Makes

In the Lowell Makes Bike Shop you can maintain your bike as the season goes, make repairs, and even replace major parts. Once you are checked out, you'll be allowed to use the tools and access all of the shop's spare parts. So long as you don't leave your bike in the shop overnight, you are free to drop in anytime.

Rules

Tools, which are blue, do not leave the Makerspace unless you get permission from the Captains first. All spare parts and bike accessories are yours to use and keep!

Donations of parts and supplies are greatly appreciated. Important: Please contact the Captains BEFORE donating, so we can make sure that it's something that meets the needs of our shop.

What's In The Shop?

The bike shop is filled with all sorts of useful bike maintenance equipment. Whether you're tuning up an old bike, or building one from scratch, we'll have what you need to tackle the project.

Checkout Info

Machines and tools are fragile, and can be damaged if used incorrectly. A checkout is required before using the Bike Shop. To schedule a checkout, just contact one of our Shop Captains.

The checkout consists of reviewing the shop rules and showing you where the different tools are, and takes around 5 minutes. While you're there, we can also chat about projects or potentials projects that you're working on or planning. Come with you ideas, and we'll help guide you in the right direction!

Still Have Questions?
